

SOL's Contract Award: 09/18/2013

The USACE, Engineer Research and Development Center (ERDC), awarded SOL Engineering Services LLC, to procure services to support the Geotechnical and Structures Laboratory (GSL), US Army Engineer Research and Development Center (ERDC), located in Vicksburg, Mississippi. The Support Services contract needed is aimed at satisfying and supporting Army and DoD requirements by containing specific tasks which may include but are not limited to: Performing technical review of reports, basic computer modeling and report preparation, conducting R&D planning and coordination, providing advice and recommendations, preparing test sites, installing test instruments, and providing manual labor.